(The review process by GFOA has not commenced for the annual budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2006.)

In order to receive this award, a government unit must publish a budget document that meets program criteria as a policy document, as an operations guide, as a financial plan and as a communication device.

The award is valid for a period of one year only. We believe our current budget continues to conform to program requirements and we will submit it to GFOA for eligibility.

YOUR GOVERNMENT AT WORK FOR YOU

Norfolk City Council is the legislative body of the City government. It is authorized to exercise all the powers conferred upon the City by the Commonwealth of Virginia in the State constitution, State laws and the Charter of the City of Norfolk.

City Council is currently composed of seven members elected through a ward system. The members elect a president (Mayor) and vice president (Vice Mayor) from the membership of the Council every two years. As a result of a Charter change approved by the Virginia General Assembly in 2005, Norfolk voters beginning with the May 2, 2006 City Council elections, will elect the Mayor at-large forming an eight member City Council. For further information on the duties, powers and meetings of the Council, call the Office of the Mayor (664-4679) or the Office of the City Clerk (664-4253).

The Council generally meets every Tuesday in the Council Chambers in Norfolk City Hall. All meetings are at 2:30 p.m. except the fourth Tuesday of each month, which begins at 7:30 p.m.

The City of Norfolk is a Council-Manager form of government whereby the Council appoints a chief executive, the City Manager, Regina V.K. Williams. The Council also appoints a City Attorney, Bernard A. Pishko; City Clerk, Breck R. Daughtrey; Real Estate Assessor, Bill Marchand (acting); and City Auditor, John Sanderlin.
