

Providing residents with convenient access to services in a "customer-friendly" environment

Neighborhood Service Centers are part of the Department of Neighborhood Preservation, Bureau of Community Outreach. Each year the four centers serve over 200,000 people. Centers offer an array of people-oriented services including community outreach, health, educational, recreational and social programs at the local level.

BUREAU OF COMMUNITY OUTREACH

400 Granby Street
Norfolk, VA 23510
757-664-6500

CommunityOutreach@norfolk.gov

www.norfolk.gov/neighborhoods

Norfolk Workforce Development Center

Department of Neighborhood Preservation

BUREAU OF
COMMUNITY OUTREACH

201 East Little Creek Road
Norfolk, VA 23505
757-664-6000

Services and Programs

Norfolk Workforce Development Center Programs

The Norfolk Workforce Development Center is a City of Norfolk facility housing the Department of Human Services and non-government agencies providing Norfolk residents convenient access to job skills training and public benefits programs.

Department of Public Health This department provides medical care and literature to protect and maintain proper health and living environments through frequent health care and educational workshops, and provides information pamphlets to protect citizens from disease outbreaks.

KRA Corporation Provides intensive case management, academic and occupational training, job placement and retention, and supportive services to welfare recipients.

The Planning Council (child care) A state-funded subsidy program offering resources and financial assistance to eligible, low-income families with childcare expenses.

Community Services Board Provides treatment to residents with mental health, mental retardation, and substance addiction problems where they live.

Virginia Tidewater Consortium for Higher Education Assesses the need for higher education programs and provides increased educational opportunities to develop a highly trained workforce in order to enhance the economic development of the region.

Eggleston Services Assists individuals with disabilities gain freedom from dependence on government support by providing them on-the-job training and stable work opportunities.

Call 664-6000
to be directed to a service.

Other agencies, organizations and programs utilizing NWDC:

- Narcotics Anonymous (NA)
- Alcoholic Anonymous (AA)
- Tidewater Literacy Council
- Hampton Roads Foster/Adoptive Family Foundation
- National Active and Retired Federal Employees (NARFE)
- AARP
- Head Start Recruitment

GENERAL SERVICES

Women, Infant, Children (WIC) This is a supplemental food program. It serves pregnant women, breastfeeding women, and women who have children 1-5 years of age and who are at a nutrition risk.

Norfolk Department of Human Services This agency provides social and financial services to indigent clients and families, including Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), Medicaid, State Local Hospitalization (SLH), insurance, food stamps and energy assistance (heating and cooling).

Adult Basic Education (ABE) The Adult Basic Education program is designed to meet the needs of adults 18 years or older who desire to learn basic skills in reading, grammar, writing and math. This program helps students prepare for entering a high school diploma program or a GED review class.

Meeting space available
Call 664-6441/6440

