

NORFOLK EMPLOYEES TO MAKE CHRISTMAS BRIGHTER FOR HOMELESS
KIDS

THE TRUE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS FLOURISHES AT CITY HALL

“Every child deserves a visit from Santa Claus on Christmas Day”.

Since December 1, city employees have been spotted on the first floor of City Hall with bags of Christmas presents.

These city employees are trying to make sure that every homeless child in Hampton Roads, more than 7700, has presents under the Christmas tree on December 25.

Commissioner of Revenue Sharon McDonald and her office partnered with For Kids to ensure that the region’s homeless children and their families have a joyous Christmas. McDonald issued a plea to other city departments to share in the true meaning of Christmas, and the response has been overwhelming.

And ... this year the elves in McDonald’s office have joined forces with their friends in the Department of Human Resources.

On Wednesday, December 14 at 12:15 p.m., the ForKids “Christmas Present on Wheels” will arrive in the circle in front of City Hall to pick up all of the toys.

And, as a special treat, the fabulous Jazz Band from Norfolk Christian High School will spread Holiday cheer throughout City Hall with a special Christmas concert.

Norfolk Senior citizens from several senior centers in the city have also been invited to enjoy the magic of the season. The concert is scheduled to begin at 12.

The public is invited. Admission is a new, unwrapped toy that Santa Claus can deliver to a deserving child.

Remember .... Everyone deserves a visit from Santa Claus on Christmas Day.
