WHEREAS, annually, June is designated as Pride Month, and communities around the United States come together to commemorate the New York City Stonewall uprisings of 1969, a major catalyst of the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) rights movement; and

WHEREAS, since its inception, Hampton Roads Pride has celebrated unity, embraced diversity and instilled pride in the region’s LGBT and allied communities by increasing visibility and promoting full human and civil rights of LGBT people; and

WHEREAS, with the support of many local businesses and organizations, Hampton Roads Pride encourages year-round education, celebration and networking opportunities for the LGBT community while organizing events the entire region can enjoy; and

WHEREAS, one of the most historic and highly anticipated annual events, the 31st annual PrideFest – LIVE YOUR BEST PRIDE, will take place at Town Point Park on Saturday, June 22, 2019, bringing together more than 15,000 people; and

WHEREAS, the City of Norfolk remains committed to protecting the civil rights of the LGBT community and eradicating prejudice and discrimination in our communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kenneth Cooper Alexander, Mayor of the City of Norfolk, do hereby proclaim June 2019 as in the City of Norfolk and urge all citizens to join me in recognizing Hampton Roads Pride for its diligent work in increasing awareness of the Hampton Roads LGBT community and for supporting local, national and global efforts to ensure diversity and equality for everyone everywhere.

PRIDE MONTH

Given under my hand this 22nd day of May 2019.

Kenneth Cooper Alexander, MAYOR
City of Norfolk
Virginia
Proclamation

WHEREAS, annually, June is designated as Pride Month, and communities around the United States come together to commemorate the New York City Stonewall uprisings of 1969, a major catalyst of the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) rights movement; and

WHEREAS, since its inception, Hampton Roads Pride has celebrated unity, embraced diversity and instilled pride in the region’s LGBT and allied communities by increasing visibility and promoting full human and civil rights of LGBT people; and

WHEREAS, with the support of many local businesses and organizations, Hampton Roads Pride encourages year-round education, celebration and networking opportunities for the LGBT community while organizing events the entire region can enjoy; and

WHEREAS, one of the most historic and highly anticipated annual events, the 31st annual PrideFest – LIVE YOUR BEST PRIDE, will take place at Town Point Park on Saturday, June 22, 2019, bringing together more than 15,000 people; and

WHEREAS, the City of Norfolk remains committed to protecting the civil rights of the LGBT community and eradicating prejudice and discrimination in our communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kenneth Cooper Alexander, Mayor of the City of Norfolk, do hereby proclaim June 2019 as in the City of Norfolk and urge all citizens to join me in recognizing Hampton Roads Pride for its diligent work in increasing awareness of the Hampton Roads LGBT community and for supporting local, national and global efforts to ensure diversity and equality for everyone everywhere.

PRIDE MONTH

Given under my hand this 22nd day of May 2019.

Kenneth Cooper Alexander, MAYOR