

Speaker's Bureau

The Crime Prevention Unit acts as the speaker's bureau for the police department by providing a variety of subjects for presentation to citizen groups. Some of the subjects available include personal safety, workplace violence, burglary prevention, identity theft, holiday safety and gang awareness. Contact the Crime Prevention Unit to schedule a presentation on any of these subjects, or if you have a subject that is not listed but would be relevant to your community's needs.